"OKLAHOMY OR BUST."

Kansas City, Kan., April 12.—A waron passed through this city yesterday bearing the following inscription on its canvas cover:

"Chintz-busged in Illinois; sicloned in Nebraska; Whitecapped in Indiana; Baldknobbed in Missouri; prohibited in Kansas. "OKLAHOMY OR BUST!"

That's what we call "grit," with a lot of "git up and git." That feller'll never "bust," he'll git thar, stay thar, flourish thar; his name'll soon head the list of "OKLAHOMY."

Boys, this is a lesson you should learn. If at first you don't succeed pick your flint and try again. Have some "grit" about you.

Bon't allow yourself to be sneezed at. "Kick" if you are snarled at. Have the courage to assert your convictions, the "grit" to maintain them, and you'll prove a success in life, even as VICTOR E. ADLER'S TEN PER CENT CLOTHING HOUSE

Has prove a success in the District of Columbia.

This is Headquarters, not only for the Big Men, but the Little Men, too. This is the season to be off with the Old and On with the New. The example has been set before you; behold: "The Earth is rejoicing; all nature to the control of the co before you; behold: "The range of life with you, hence is gay."
BOYS, this is the spring time of life with you, hence BOYS, this is the spring time of life with you, hence to gather a spring and plenty of it, to we address you particularly, having prepared ourselves expressly with proper Clothing, and plenty of it, to make your outward appearance harmonize with the season, and have put the prices so low as to be within the reach of the poorest purse.

RECORDER OF DEEDS. An Impression that the President is About Ready to Make the Appointment.

The impression is out in some mysterious way that the President is ready to appoint the recorder of deeds for the District, and there was much activity among candidates in a quiet way to-day. Ex-Representative Guenther, of Wisconsin, was to see the President in his own behalf. He is very strongly indorsed for the position, but has the disadvantage of being a citizen of one of the states. Mr. Fred. Douglass' friends are working hard to secure his appointment to the place. But Col. Perry Carson is doing the most heroic work of all the candidates, and is said to stand a fair chance of getting the appointment.

Mr. Andrew Gleeson saw the President in his behalf to-day. The President has not fully make up his mind as to whether or not he will appoint a colored man. DEATH OF MRS. FEBIGER.

Consciousness Never Returned After the Accident which Cost Her Life. Mrs. Febiger, the wife of Rear-Admiral Febiger, who was injured by a runaway accident Sunday, died this morning about 5 o'clock. From the moment of the accident she has remained in a state of unconsciousness, and she passed from that state to death without being aroused for an instant. The only sign of life death was absolutely painless. All the members of the family, except the daughter, who is ill, were at her bedside when she passed away. There was never any hope of her recovery. The accident that caused her death occurred Sunday afternoon. She was driving with her son, Mr. Johnson, in an open carriage, when the carriage-pole broke, the horses, affrighted, ran down F street and the coachman jumped from the box. Mr. Johnson in some way got to the horses' heads and made a brave effort to save his mother, but he was thrown to the ground and in a moment the carriage was smashed to pieces. Mrs. Febiger was taken from the ruins in an unconscious condition, with her skull and arms fractured. Since then the inevitable end has been expected momentarily. Her death is a severe shock to many friends. The funeral will take place at 3:30 to-morrow afternoon at the residence of Admiral Febiger, 1721 H street, Rev. Father Chapelle officiating. The interment will be at Mt. Olivet and will be private. The remains will be borne by a detail of sailors from the navy-yard. The pall-bearers will be Admirals Fendall and Outerbridge Horsey.

New Controller of the Currency. The contest over the controllership of the currency has been settled by the appointment of ex-Representative E. S. Lacey, of Michigan. Mr. Lacey served in the Forty-seventh and Forty-eighth Congresses.

A Pension Decision Overruled. predecessor's decision in the case of W. H. sistant Secretary Hawkins held that Brokenshaw was not injured while in the line of duty. and declined to grant a pension on that ground. Assistant Secretary Bussey holds that Brokenshaw was in his proper place, ready to perform such duty as he might be called upon to do, and was guiltless of any act contributory to the assault; that the injury alleged as the ground of pension happened to him without any fault or neglect on his part, and that he is entitled to a for forgery in his pension claim. He was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment in the 'Detroit house of correction."

Larceny of a Child's Bank.

This morning in the Criminal Court, Judge Bradley, the trial of Alice Stewart, colored, for the larceny of a child's bank, containing $37.50, from Thaddeus A. Jones on January 23 last, was resumed-Assistant District Attorney Coyle for the government and J. McD. Carrington for the defendant. It is alleged that the accused had an opportunity to take the bank, and the money was found at the house of Alice Johnson, with Chloe Heard, to whom accused had given it. For the defense, Ada Cross, a small colored girl now in jail on three convictions and sen-tenced to six months in each for petit larceny, testified that she went to the back gate with Fanny Butcher, who came out with the bank. garden spot of the west, and predicts that in less than two years it will be admitted into the witness $4. The defendant testified that Fanny Butcher gave her a bundle and told her to keep it for her. She acknowledged that the officer came to the house looking for money, but she did not tell him, for it was not his money, and she was keeping it for Fanny. She was at Mrs. Jones' when Fanny was there, and let her in the gate. In rebuttal, Fanny Butcher was called and denied all knowledge of the bank. On crossexamination she admitted having been at Mrs. Jones', but when she found that Mrs. Jones was not at home left.

John Battenfield, who was at work on the day of the loss, testified that the small colored girl was not in the house.

The case was argued at some length, Mr. had a talk with Treasurer Hyatt in regard to his assumption of the duties of the office. It is told the truth and that the Butcher girl was the thief, and Mr. Coyle that the accused took the money.

CONVICTED AND SENTENCED. The jury found a verdict of guilty on one indictment.

The court said that from the experience on Saturday last the rule of bringing up a lot of prisoners on Saturdays for sentence would be better honored in the breach than in the observance; he had concluded, as far as possible, to impose sentences on the date of conviction. In view of the fact that this was, as far as known, her first offense, and from the further fact that she was a mother, he imposed a sentence of one year in the Albany penitentiary.

Trouble About a Ditch.

About two weeks since, in the Circuit Court, division No. 2, Justice Montgomery, the case of J. R. Hertford against the District for damages to defendant by entering upon his land at Mt. Pleasant and digging a ditch was tried, but the result was a disagreement of the jury. It was claimed that the ditching was necessary to drain water from the land opposite Dr. Breed's.
A few days ago Mr. Hertford, acting on advice of counsel, filled up the ditch, and since then the District or Dr. Breed, with a force of men MADE MUSIC BUT NO MONEY. Failure of a New York and Boston Piano Manufacturer.

Boston, April 17.-Thos, F. Scanlan, doing business as the New England Piano company, with offices at 157 Tremont street, Boston, and 88 5th avenue, N. Y., with factory at Roxbury, Mass., has failed and assigned to Godfrey Morse, a lawyer. Liabilities, $200,000. Scanlan was formerly of the firm of McLaughlin & Scanlan, organ builders, Boston. This firm dissolved in 1881, and since then Scanlan has conducted the business himself.

About six years ago he established his large factory in Roxbury, where 400 persons are em-ployed. Recently the New York branch of the business was incorporated under New York laws and styled the New England piano company of New York, with a capital stock of $200,000. The Boston business has been incorporated under the laws of Maine, with a capital stock of $750.000. In March last some of the important machinery in Scanlan's factory became disabled, causing a brief shut down of the works. At this time there were rumors that Scanlan was in financial distress, but he explained matters satisfactorily, saying that the stoppage of work had caused the rumors, and also claiming to be in an easy financial position. The factory at Roxbury has manufactured an average of seventy pianos a week.

A BIG PLATE GLASS DEAL A Pittsburg Firm Secures a Practical

Monopoly of the American Trade.

PITTSBURG, April 16. -One of the greatest plate glass deals ever made was effected here yesterday. The Pittsburg plate glass company bought from J. B. Ford & Sons, the Forest plateglass works, paying therefor $1,500,000. The purchase practically gives the Pittsburg company a monopoly of the plate glass business of this country. The company already owned two immense factories, and this acquisition of the third gives them control of a combined production of 500,000 feet of plate glass per month. The three factories are all in the Allegheny valley near Pittsburg. Capt. J. B. Ford, who was the principal owner of the Forest City works is also a heavy stockholder in the Pittsburg.
